Title: POLICE TECHNICAL Expands Staffing, Steadily Growing from One to 22

Short Title: POLICE TECHNICAL Expands Staff to 22 Members

Date of Release: May 12, 2014

POLICE TECHNICAL was created by Thomas Manson, the company's Founder and CEO, and became an LLC in 2005, it has expanded to 18 instructors and 4 office staff.

In 2011, POLICE TECHNICAL began a search for instructors. After a year of training them in POLICE TECHNICAL methodology, the company gained 5 instructors, in turn adding five new courses. In 2013, Course Manager Stephanie Miller was hired to coordinate schedules and training sites as the course line-up grew.

The following year the company recruited Spencer May, a Web Developer who would reshape POLICE TECHNICAL'S online training system, COMMUNITY. The system allows students to track their progress and participate in forums with other law enforcement personnel.

As of May 5, 2014, with the hiring of Brienne Hofmann and Maggie Rumler, POLICE TECHNICAL jumped to 22 members. Rumler is the Marketing Manager for POLICE TECHNICAL and Hofmann is the Editor for its POLICE PUBLISHING division.

Manson said POLICE TECHNICAL is dedicated to serving the needs of law enforcement. When that need increased, POLICE TECHNICAL began taking steps to fulfil it.

PowerPoint© for Public Safety was previously the only class offered by POLICE TECHNICAL but "everything exploded once an online investigations course was requested," Manson said. Expansion for the company means there is a high demand for what POLICE TECHNICAL is providing: great training to law enforcement nationally.

Growing the staff has allowed POLICE TECHNICAL to connect members of law enforcement from across the country. Miller said she is looking forward to the upcoming projects and bringing law enforcement together in order to work more cooperatively.

"The changes over the last year will drive POLICE TECHNICAL to a higher standard in law enforcement training," Miller said.

Although the growth was years in the making, it will not come to a stop. POLICE TECHNICAL is already looking toward the future and expanding instruction even more.

POLICE TECHNICAL is a national law enforcement training company located in Terre Haute, Ind. The company currently employs 18 instructors, who teach and maintain 15 courses in five certification tracks.
