NEWS RELEASE

Title: Stephanie Miller Revitalizes POLICE TECHNICAL's Course Management

Short Title: POLICE TECHNICAL Revitalized by Hiring Stephanie Miller

Date of Release: June 24, 2013

POLICE TECHNICAL hired Stephanie Miller for the Course Manager position on June 17, 2013.

Miller is a valuable asset for the growth of the company, said Thomas Manson, Founder and CEO of POLICE TECHNICAL. Miller brings experience in advertising and the ability to operate at the managerial level.

"Stephanie has a history of entrepreneurship, media, and service," Manson said. "Her biggest contribution is her ability to manage multiple aspects of a changing company at the same time."

When POLICE TECHNICAL grew the number of courses offered, there became a need for a Course Manager. Miller is tasked with driving the courses POLICE TECHNICAL offers and managing the registrations.

In addition, Miller oversees the transition of POLICE TECHNICAL from a training company to a solutions company. The main point of contact for these various agencies, she builds relationships between POLICE TECHNICAL, host locations, and students.

"As we expand to more instructors and locations, those relationships are key," Miller said.

For Miller, a career with POLICE TECHNICAL is ideal because the company makes a difference in the lives of Law Enforcement daily.

"I am able to grow and adapt in any way needed to help the company grow," Miller said.

Miller previously worked for Time Warner Cable/VIA Media as Advertising Sales Coordinator before joining POLICE TECHNICAL. She said she "needed a change from corporate politics and wanted to try a new adventure."

"POLICE TECHNICAL is a cutting edge training company always looking for the most up-to-date topics to train on and ways to provide that training," said Miller.

POLICE TECHNICAL is a national law enforcement training company located in Terre Haute, Ind. The company currently employs 13 instructors, who teach and maintain 13 courses.
